

WINCHESTER

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Winchester, Va., March 23.—Mrs. E. V. Weems and other members of the Weems family, who have been spending the winter in Baltimore, have returned to their home in Winchester for the summer.

Miss Katharine McFadden has been spending the past week with friends in Richmond and Charlottesville.

Mrs. George M. Galtner and her daughter, Miss Lucretia J. Galtner, of Baltimore, are spending several weeks in Winchester with friends, and will join Mr. Galtner at Atlantic City at Easter.

Miss Mattie Swetland, of New York, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Norton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kremer and children, of Hagerstown, Md., have been visiting relatives in Winchester.

Mrs. John W. Rice left this week to visit relatives and friends in Baltimore.

Miss Marion Kremkau, of New Castle, Pa., who has been visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. Kremkau, left this week for New York.

Mrs. M. K. Russell and Mrs. R. Gray Williams left several days ago to visit the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Loring A. Cover, in Baltimore.

Mr. Edgar J. Myers, of Martinsburg, W. Va., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Charlene, in this city, left a few days ago for Washington to visit her sister, Mrs. C. B. Myers.

Miss Mary Worthington has returned from a visit to relatives and friends in Baltimore and Washington.

Mrs. J. S. Spurrer has been visiting friends in Baltimore this week.

Miss Kathleen Hack has gone to Baltimore to visit her sister, Mrs. W. Alburg.

Rev. John McVerry, pastor of the Church of the Sacred Heart, has returned from Richmond, where he attended the ceremonies incident to the installation of Bishop Dennis J. O'Connor.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Steck have returned from a visit to the latter's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Loring A. Cover, in Baltimore.

Miss Emma Kinsel has gone to Washington to visit her sister, Mrs. C. R. Walker.

Edward E. Stone, who has been spending the winter in Canada with relatives, is now with his father, Dr. Robert W. Stone, in Winchester.

Speaker Richard Evelyn Byrd, of the Virginia House of Delegates, spent some time this week at his home in Winchester.

Miss Frances Peyton Page left on Wednesday to visit friends in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Russell have gone on a visit to friends in Washington and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McFadden, of York, Pa., are visiting relatives and friends here.

Mrs. J. C. Eastham left this week to visit friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. J. L. Maphis has returned from a short visit to friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. Walter T. Gore has gone on a visit to friends in Washington and New York.

Mrs. William Deshon, who has been visiting relatives in Maryland for several weeks, has returned to her home near Winchester.

Mrs. Louis McCoy Nulton, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Evans, has returned to Annapolis, Md., and was accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Herbert S. Larrick, and daughter.

Mrs. Walter Hurdle, who has been visiting relatives in this city, has returned to Philadelphia.

Mrs. George James Aldord and grandson, who have been spending the winter with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mott, have returned to Wallkill, N. Y.

Miss Dorothy Carr has been visiting friends at Front Royal.

GLOUCESTER

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Gloucester, Va., March 23.—Mrs. William K. Perrin and Mrs. H. E. Tallferro are in Salisbury, Md., on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Perrin, Jr.

Mrs. William J. Mott has returned from a several months' visit in New York as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mott.

Miss Jennie Vandergift, who has spent the winter with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Withers, left on Saturday for Lynchburg.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Patterson

Have You Seen Them?

We want you to see the latest models in American Lady Corsets. They represent the last word in corsetry, conforming to the final dictates of Spring Parisian fashions in every detail. These models of are built on the long, straight lines, giving the smart low bust, the modish long hip and back of the present vogue. Every American Lady model is a form builder. They make figures for thousands. They will for you. Ask to see the new styles.

American Lady CORSETS

Model 245 (as illustrated) for slender and medium figures, low bust, extra long hip, extra long back, batiste, 18-30 . . . $2.00

Model 246, same in coutil $2.00

Ask Your Merchant $1 to $10

LADIES' AND MISSES' DEPT.

Guaranteed
Alterations
FREE

Tyler's

First and Broad
Streets

Women's Distinctively Stylish Easter Suits

ATTRACTIVELY PRICED

Monday to Be Our Banner Day

A SUIT MESSAGE for every woman—was ever such an offer known? Spring already here—Easter steadily approaching, and all womankind bent on new apparel. To-morrow will be truly a notable day of Suit beauty and economy, and we bid you welcome to this unusual value presentation.

$14.98

FOR SUITS WORTH UP TO $30.00.

FOR SUITS WORTH UP TO $19.50,

Monday's Special,

$11.98

$13.50 to $16.50 Values,

Suits and Dresses

Specially Priced for Monday's Selling

at $8.98

Alterations Free

Which are executed as painstakingly as if charged for.

are in Baltimore attending the dog show.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Wolcott have gone to Montana for several months.

Mrs. Richard Janney is spending some time in Florida with her sister, Miss Bessie Hopkins, in Americus, Ga.

Mrs. Henry A. Williams is at Atlantic City, N. J., for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William DeW. Dimmock returned on Monday from a trip to New York.

Miss Virginia Withers, who spent the winter with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Withers at "Sevenby," has returned to her home in Mississippi.

Misses Sally McLean Jones and Julia Jennings are visiting in Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Saunders have returned from two months' spent in Albany, N. Y., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. N. S. Saunders.

Mrs. R. P. Tallferro and Miss Anne Powell Byrd are spending some time in New York.

Mrs. Minnie Wellford Marshall and Mrs. H. A. White are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Marshall at Hodge, West Virginia.

Dr. E. T. Wellford, of Newport News, spent Monday and Tuesday with relatives on North River.

Mrs. A. A. Johnson has returned from a visit to her mother, Mrs. Christian Van Grundy, in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Theodore Silkman, Jr., of Yorkers, N. Y., was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cary, and Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Saunders.

Mrs. Walter C. Perrin has returned from Newport News, where she was guest of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Sewell.

Miss Lelia Benson has returned from several weeks in Rochester and New Rochelle, N. Y., and Warren, Pa.

Mrs. Leigh Williams, of Norfolk, is the guest of the Misses Tabb at "Newstead."

Miss Eloise Williams, of Norfolk, is visiting Captain and Mrs. John N. Tabb, at "Showan."

Dr. A. L. Wellford, of Richmond, spent a few days with Dr. and Mrs. T. R. Marshall.

Miss Mary Gibson Kemp is spending the winter and spring in Baltimore.

Miss Margaret Arthur Tabb has returned from a visit to Baltimore. Miss Maggie Tabb is spending some time in York, Pa.

BLACKSBURG

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Blacksburg, Va., March 23.—Mrs. Fanny Harrison Panton entertained at an informal bridge party Wednesday evening at her home on Main Street, in honor of her house guests, Misses Frances Firebaugh, of Botetown, and Kyle Thomas, of Montgomery. Supper was served on the card tables at the end of the game.

W. Williams, clerk of the House of Delegates, and Mrs. Williams have been guests this week of Mrs. William Lybrook.

Mrs. Paul B. Barringer returned Thursday from a visit to relatives in Charlottesville and a short stay in Lynchburg.

Miss Fredrica McCauley, of Salem, is spending two weeks here as the house guest of Miss Florence Hubert.

Rev. E. B. Jackson, Mrs. Jackson and their three children left Wednesday for Warrenton, where the former recently accepted a call to the First Baptist Church.

Miss Elizabeth Walker, of Roanoke, is here to spend several months with her sister, Mrs. James M. Johnson.

Mrs. J. B. Johnson, of Christiansburg, and Thompson Blair, of Crawfordsville, are guests of Professor and Mrs. T. P. Campbell.

Miss Pearl Blakely, of Boston, a pupil at Sweet Briar College, is with Miss Louise Hoge for the Easter holidays.

Mrs. Charles E. Vawter and Dr. William F. Henderson have been spending the week in Salem with the Misses Henderson.

BERRYVILLE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Berryville, Va., March 23.—Mrs. L. Dainfield Lewis, formerly of Clarke county, but for several years a resident of New York, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Carter Penna Lewis, to William H. Wiley, of New York. The wedding will take place at an early date.

Miss Edna Kercheval is at home after an extended stay in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed Ogden have returned from a visit to Luray.

Miss Rose Shackelford has returned from a visit to Washington and Baltimore.

After spending some time in Baltimore, Miss Maud G. Buckingham is back in Berryville.

Miss Ida Morgan has been visiting friends in Washington.

Miss Mamie White has returned from an extended visit to relatives and friends in Richmond.

Miss Louise Hall, of Charlottesville, W. Va., has been visiting Mrs. S. S. Thomas.

Miss Jane Moore is spending some time in New York.

Miss Marion Parker, of Washington, is visiting Miss Eliza Moore.

C. VanDevanter and family left last Saturday for Boyce, where Mr. VanDevanter has accepted the position as cashier of the Boyce State Bank.

ARVONIA

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Arvon, Va., March 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Letcher Pitts, who have been spending some time at Mrs. Pitts' old home in Mapleton, Ga., have returned to their home here.

William J. Hubard, of Richmond, ex-grand high priest, and grand lecturer of Royal Arch Masonry in Virginia, after spending ten days here helping to give the Royal Arch degrees to candidates and instructing the officers of the chapter, has left for his home in Richmond.

Miss Annie Pankey, who has been visiting friends and relatives at Concord, Appomattox county, has returned to her home in Richmond.

William Pierce, of Philadelphia, son of the late Richard Pierce, who formerly lived and was reared at Arvon, spent a week here visiting the family of his uncles and aunts, returning to Philadelphia on Sunday.

Miss Winnie L. Letcher, her guest, Miss Minnie Newman Bell, of Mt. Sidney, Va., spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chandler Root, at Fenton.

Robert Simpson, of Richmond, spent several days here at the Arvon Inn last week.

Flummer F. Jones, of Arvon, spent two days at Buckingham Courthouse and Dilwyn this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Letcher, of Arvon, spent several days in Richmond this week.

Miss Margaret Fontaine, of Wheeling, W. Va., is spending some time at the home of Miss Margaret Brown, Ivy Hill, near Arvon.

Owen R. Jeffrey spent two or three days in Richmond this week.

Miss Maude Williams is spending some time in Richmond visiting relatives and friends.

POCAHONTAS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Pocahontas, Va., March 23.—Miss Margie Macome, of Keystone, W. Va., was in the city this week, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Macome.

Miss Carpenter, of Norfolk, is the guest of her brother, on West Water Street.

Mrs. De Witte Talmage Shelton and son, who have been spending the month in Birmingham, Ala., have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Luther Mustard have returned to their home in Richmond.

Mr. John P. Haller and Mrs. C. M. Galloway were in Bluefield, W. Va., on Saturday the guests of friends.

Miss Manie Angel was in Bluefield, W. Va., this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Heatherman have returned to their home in Bluefield, W. Va., after a visit to the city.

Miss Nellie Du Puy, of Graham, visited Mrs. E. Du Puy here this week.

Mr. L. L. Shockey, of Cary, W. Va., was in the city in a week en route to his home at Mora, W. Va.

PACE'S

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Paces, Va., March 23.—Mrs. W. D. Pierce, of Loudoun, Ky., is visiting her parents, Captain and Mrs. William Haynes, at Elmo.

Mrs. W. W. Wimbush and W. B. Owen, of this place, spent a few days in Richmond last week.

Miss Patsy Osborne has returned home from a visit to her brother, J. H. Osborne.

Mrs. H. S. Derriek and Mrs. J. O. Vaughan are visiting friends in Danville this week.

Beverly Barksdale, of Saxe, is visiting relatives in Brooklyn.

Mr. O. H. Oliver returned home this week from Buena Vista, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. B. W. Oliver.

Miss Anne Oliver spent Friday in Danville.

Misses Roma Vaughan and Alice Burgess visited South Boston this week.

F. K. Morris spent Tuesday in Danville.

H. Vaughan, of Louisa, is visiting his parents at this place.

HEATHSVILLE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Heathsville, Va., March 23.—A Jack Brown, of Richmond, after a visit to "Roanoke," the home of his father, C. Harding Baker, has returned home from Richmond.

Dr. Fred D. Brent has returned from Baltimore, where he was on a business trip.

Miss Genevieve de Sales Smith entertained at "Sunnyside," the home of her mother, Mrs. Lloyd T. Smith, this week, a number of Misses Norris, of Lindy, Lancaster county, and Miss Mary Kemp, of La Plata, Md. Cards were a leading feature in the entertainment, and the guests were Misses Estelle Betts, Leah Rice, Maud and Irene Nelms, Mamie Pierson Stoneham, Harriet Blackwell, Minnie Anderson and Doreen Shiro, and Robert and Gordon Blundin and Oscar Betts, Professor Arnold and Dr. Fred D. Brent.

The meeting held on Saturday for the purpose of making some arrangement towards getting a new building for the High School in Heathsville, proved a heated affair, and something of a failure, as there was strong opposition from some as to an increase of taxation towards that purpose, or in fact to a new building at all, although one is much needed. A decision was not arrived at, as a adjournment of two weeks was asked before putting it to the people.

The county school fair meeting on the other hand, went on swimmingly, and it was decided to hold it in October in Heathsville. Each school in various schools will bring some agricultural or other product, and each giving something to show her culinary skill or excellence in some other line. Premiums will be given for superior excellence in any branch.

WAVERLY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Waverly, Va., March 23.—Professor John E. Martin, of the Wakefield High School faculty, was in Waverly on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Colonel and Mrs. J. E. West and daughter, Miss Ella Beale and Miss Ella Beale, of Suffolk, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. West, on last Sunday.

Mrs. M. B. Morris, of Newport News, is visiting relatives at the Central Hotel in Waverly.

Mrs. J. F. West returned to her home in Waverly on Wednesday, after spending several weeks at the Norfolk Protestant Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Young, of Hampden-Sydney College, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Daniel on East Main Street Sunday.

Mr. Young returned to the college on Monday, while Mrs. Young will remain in Waverly for several weeks.

Mrs. W. F. Dunaway, Jr., of Backley, W. Va., is visiting in the home of her father, Dr. John F. May, on East Main Street.

J. Gordon Bohannon, of Petersburg, was in Waverly yesterday.

T. E. Johnson, of Greensboro, N. C., is spending the week with relatives and friends in and near Waverly.

Guy Cox, of Norfolk, visited relatives near Waverly this week, returning home to-day, his brother, C. C. Cox, accompanying him.

Miss Grace Jones, of Fredericksburg, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Chappell, on Main Street.

Mrs. Zimmerman, of Sum, is visiting in the home of her father, William H. Murray, on East Main Street.

Hiram C. Thornton, a former clerk of Waverly, who is now residing in Franklin, visited friends in Waverly Sunday last.

John W. West and son, John W. Jr., returned from a three day visit to Baltimore, Md., on Tuesday last.

W. E. Norris has returned from a three days' visit to friends in Chase City.

Colonel Robert W. Arnold spent the day in Charlottesville on yesterday, returning home in the afternoon.

Rev. V. A. Snyder is spending the week in Portsmouth, with his mother, who is sick.

Do Not Be Discouraged!

We'll Give You Credit

"Do not despair—the darkest day, live till to-morrow, shall have passed away." If you and yours need Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Curtains, Draperies, and have no cash in hand to pay therefor, let us help you to help yourself! We'll give you six, nine or even twelve months' time, and send everything to your home, for small payment down. We are doing it for others, so why not let us do it for you, friend! You will find these

Home Furnishings of the Better Kind

We need you for a friend as much as you need us—a permanent friend—and that is why we cannot afford to sell goods of doubtful merit—they must be true to the core.

Spring Opening Specials

Spring Mattings

Just Received

Special Opening Prices

16c Yard

or good Seamless China Matting; value, 25c yard.

20c Yard

for good Heavy Matting; value, 35c yard.

30c Yard

for Best Heavy China Matting; value, 45c yard.

A Carload of New

1912

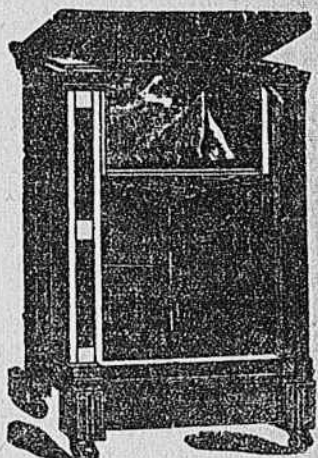

Zero and Buffalo

Refrigerators

Best construction; guaranteed charcoal filled. Special at $5.98 up

Hopkins Furniture Co.

Seven
W. Broad

ONANCOCK

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Onancock, Va., March 23.—Miss Fanny Wilkins is home from a two months' visit to relatives in Elizabeth, N. J., and Georgetown, Del.

Miss Sadie E. Fletcher returned Wednesday. While away she visited Miss Pauline Mattfeldt, of Mt. Washington; Mrs. L. Huson, of Washington; and Mrs. W. Cosby Bell, of Alexandria.

Miss Nellie P. Powell left for Baltimore on Monday.

Mrs. B. K. Broughton, Mrs. S. Randall Beale and son, James, are home from a six weeks' visit to Captain and Mrs. B. T. Crockett, of East Palatka, Fla.

There will be a public debate in the High School auditorium between the Jefferson and Washington Literary Societies Friday evening, March 29, at 8 o'clock on the subject, "Resolved, That the School Board Should Give Us an Athletic Field."

The affirmative will be upheld by William Miles and Ben T. Parker, of Onley, representing the Jefferson Society; while the negative side will be debated by Miss Margaret Cropper, of Onley, and Miss Ruth Nottingham, of Onancock, both members of the Washington Society. The music will be furnished by the Glee Club, and the declaimers for the evening will be Misses Blanche Bundick, of Modestown; Misses Lola Rogers, of Fannie E. Taylor, and Blanche Bundick, of Modestown; Misses conclusion of the exercises a Patrons' League will be organized.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Elmore are on Chincoteague for a week with friends.

William E. Hopkins is back from Plymouth, N. C., of Oak Hall, was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. R. Finley Gayle and Mrs. N. W. Nock are visiting in Norfolk.

Tally W. Parks returned from Baltimore Wednesday.

Miss Florence J. West, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Sadie Watts, of Wilson, N. C., is back from a stay of two weeks with relatives in Pocahontas City.

DANVILLE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Danville, Va., March 23.—Miss Alice Lee has returned from Henderson, N. C., where she visited Mrs. D. L. Daughtridge.

Mrs. Pemberton Penn and children have returned to the city after spending the past two months in Florida.

Mrs. E. H. Copeland, of Washington, D. C., is the guest of Mrs. Cowper, on Jefferson Street.

Miss Elizabeth Sutherland, of Sweet Briar College, is visiting Miss Louise Beales, who has also returned from the Woman's College, Columbia, S. C., where she is a student.

Miss Sallie Watson, of Sweet Briar College, is a guest of Miss Araminta Holcomb.

Misses Margaret Temple, Virginia Robertson, Nancy Watson and Eunice Pritchett are at home from Sweet Briar College to spend ten days.

Miss Katie Rottor, of Richmond, is visiting Miss Bessie Clark on Bryant Avenue.

The literature circle of the Wednesday Afternoon Club met this afternoon at 1 o'clock in the parlor of the First Baptist Church. Mrs. T. C. Guernsey read an interesting paper upon Goethe's "Hermann and Dorothea."

Mrs. Jeannette Jewel Kellogg gave a delightful entertainment on Monday night at the Roanoke Institute.

On Monday night there was a recital given in the auditorium of the Randolph-Macon Institute by the music pupils of the school. While the program was a lengthy one it was heartily enjoyed, the renditions of the little children resulting in long and loud applause. They seemed thoroughly at home upon the stage and none appeared to suffer from nervousness. The second part of the program was given over to the elder pupils.

Mrs. and Mrs. John W. Carter have returned to the city from Richmond, formerly a resident of this city, but latterly of Richmond.

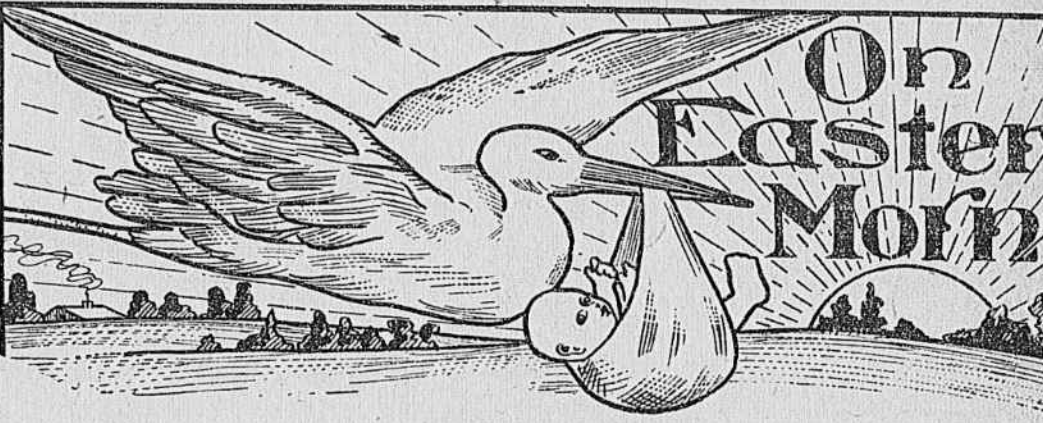

SALEM

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Salem, Va., March 23.—The Five Hundred Club was charmingly entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. W. T. Younger at her home on Main Street. The parlor was very artistically decorated with potted plants, tulips and primroses. Several of the members were absent, and those invited to take their places at the tables were Mrs. W. D. Crawford, Mrs. Hendley, Miss Kate Dillard, Miss Annie McConkey and Miss Fannie Berkley. Mrs. Younger was assisted in serving by Miss Lou Carlisle and Miss Frances Kolner. The club will be entertained at its next meeting by Mrs. E. M. Worden at her home on Union Street.

Mrs. J. S. Shartzer entertained a number of young people informally at her home, "Hiveride," on Tuesday evening, complimentary to her sister, Miss Lelia Leake, of Martinsville, who is spending several weeks in Salem.

Mrs. Charles Vawter and son, children, of Backsburg, are guests of her father, Captain T. J. Henderson, on Main Street.

Miss Minnie Obenshain and little Miss Adeline Spangler, of Pageton, W. Va., are spending the week-end at Mrs. Maude Obenshain, on College Avenue.

On Easter Morn

In a showcase placed in the vestibule of Pettit & Co.'s Furniture Store, at Foushee and Broad Streets, there is displayed a unique and appropriate gift that will be awarded to some fortunate family on Easter Morn.

There is absolutely no string attached to this gift—any family in Richmond is qualified, the only requirement being that the stork arrive.

The new little citizen of Richmond arriving after the stroke of 12 that proclaims the Easter Morn is, more fortunate, perhaps, than other new arrivals in so far that he, or perhaps she, is assured of certain worldly goods with which to start in life.

TO STATE THE FACTS PLAINLY, PETTIT & CO. WILL PRESENT THIS GIFT TO THE FIRST BABY BORN IN RICHMOND AFTER THE STROKE OF 12 ON SATURDAY NIGHT, APRIL 7th. This gift is intended for the baby born on Easter Morn; but if Mr. Stork is late, and does not visit any family in Richmond on that morning, it will be awarded to the first baby born thereafter.

Pettit and Company

Foushee-Broad Sts

The Store That Lives Up to Its Advertising

Publicity Bureau